FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Birch Creek's New Holiday Concert features faculty brass, percussion and handbell choir.

Join Birch Creek for Music of the Season on Saturday, December 3rd at 7PM. The night will feature performances by Birch Creek's Symphony Session Brass Thomas Stark, Trombonist; Charles Schuchat, Tuba; Kevin Wood, Trumpet; with friends Valerie Whitney, Horn; Don Sipe, Trumpet; and Percussion Program Director and Faculty Dan Moore, percussion, return for a holiday concert in the beautifully decorated, intimate Juniper Hall. Birch Creek is also excited to have the five octave, Sister Bay Moravian Church Handbell Choir directed by Diane Ludwigsen, to join the festivities. This concert will be generously supported by lead sponsors Dave and Lolly Ratajczak and co-sponsors Door County Nature Works and Al Johnson's Swedish Restaurant.

This concert is the sixth and last concert of Birch Creek's Fall Series, which featured regional musical talent that generates proceeds for Birch Creek's Annual Scholarship Fund. 2016 marks Birch Creek's second consecutive year of offering a Fall Concert Series, following a very successful run of three concerts in fall 2015.

The holiday concert will feature the special Holiday 3/4 Time promotion! Buy 3 tickets and get the 4th free by using the promo code "3/4"online or over the phone.
